

Internet Home Business Idea - Multiple Streams of Autopilot Income in 5 Crazy Steps

Contributed by Webmaster
Saturday, 14 July 2007
Last Updated Saturday, 14 July 2007

By Murtuza Abbas

Are you confused as to how to start an internet business?

Do you want to get out of information overload and finally discover how gurus make a killer living online?

Apply these 5 simple steps and there is no reason left for you to fail.

Here's a simple 5 block formula to make money on demand. Whenever you want a new stream of income just setup this system once and start pulling in non-stop profits for your entire life...

Step 1 - Create a content site or a minisite.

Step 2 - Create a squeeze page to build relationship.

Step 3 - Create a product and killer copy.

Step 4 - Setup backend products.

Step 5 - Test everything.

The purpose of this article is to show you a simple blueprint, when applied will swim you in profits almost instantly.

Lets get into details of how to apply each step...

Step 1 - Create a content site or a minisite.

There are 2 ways to make money online...

1. Create a content site where your goal is to attract traffic from search engines by creating search engine optimized pages.

Then divert this traffic to your salesletters where you sell your products and services.

2. Create a simple minisite where your only goal is to sell your product by putting up a killer copy in front of your visitors.

You will now learn the importance of setting up a squeeze page to build relationship.

Step 2 - Create a squeeze page to build relationship.

It is extremely important to build a list and stay in contact with your list to build relationship.

You can do this easily with the help of a squeeze page and an autoresponder service.

This relationship will help you to sell products and make you money for lifetime.

Learn how to create killer products and order pulling copy.

Step 3 - Create a product and killer copy.

Create a simple product or grab resell right products and sell them to make money.

You will also require a stunning order pulling sales copy that conveys benefits of your product to your visitors.

Discover how to create multiple streams of income setting up killer backend products.

Step 4 - Setup backend products.

To make a killer income online all you need to do is create multiple streams of income.

You can do this easily by setting up related back end products that you offer your visitors and make more money out of your customers.

Test everything you do from now on and see your website profits explode.

Step 5 - Test everything.

The more you test, more you improve your website conversion and more money you make.

It is simple. You can sell 1 product to every 100 visitors to your site. Make some changes to your sales process and sell 5 to 10 copies of the same product to every 100 visitors.

This is the power of testing your sales funnel.

The purpose of this article is to show you the exact steps that top named internet gurus use to start their internet business and now you can do it too.

There are many other points that you will require to start a wildly profitable internet business but these 5 steps are the basic foundation for the success of your internet home business idea.

Make sure you learn everything you get your hands on to master this 5 block formula and see your profits explode.

Want to learn how I do it? Watch this 'FREE Video' and discover how I recently made $20,000 with my website - Free internet home business idea Video.

Murtuza Abbas has written 111 articles where he shows you how to start an internet business in less than 7 days. Here's your FREE best home internet business Tutorials.

{mos_sb_discuss:2}

Home Business

{mos_sb_discuss:2}